STATEMENT REGARDING USE OF NON-GAAP MEASURES

EBITDA, defined as net income (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, is a non-GAAP financial measure, and should not be considered as an alternative to net income (loss) as a measure of financial or operating performance, as an alternative to cash flows provided by operating, investing and financing activities as a measure of liquidity, or as an alternative to any other financial measure calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. EBITDA is presented to provide additional information regarding the Company's current financial and operating performance by excluding certain items that may not be indicative of the Company's core operating results. Management believes that EBITDA provides useful information to the Company and its investors, and is frequently utilized by security analysts, lenders and other interested parties to evaluate companies in our industry. In addition, because the Company has historically provided EBITDA measures to investors and other interested parties as required under certain of our previous financing arrangements, management believes that EBITDA provides consistency in the Company's financial reporting and is a useful supplemental measure in comparing the Company's general operating performance from period to period.
